A Weekly Tea Practice for Everyday Life

Taste · Floral · Relax · Gather

A weekly cup to slow the rush — and turn tradition into everyday life.

INTRODUCTION

About the Programme

Tea is a way of living that fits into everyday life. These regular sessions run each week, following the twenty-four solar terms and traditional festivals — bringing tasting, learning and calm into your busy week.

Sessions combine an introduction to the six tea families, tea art and wellness, and solar-term and festival gatherings — an easy way to get to know tea, and to meet like-minded people at a regular gathering.

No experience is needed, and no need to learn it all at once. Join a single session or become a member — one cup a week, following the seasons and festivals, slowly building your feel for tea and for life.

A cup of tea needn't wait for a special day, it can simply be a quiet hour, every week.

HIGHLIGHTS

How It Works

- Guided by the solar terms and festivals — a fresh theme each time
- No experience needed — join a single session or as a member
- Tasting, interaction, hands-on making, mini planting, flower arranging, and sharing
- Learning, relaxation and connection in one
- Rolling weekly sessions — easy to fit your schedule
- A regular gathering where like minds naturally meet
- Step by step, you'll know tea — and life — a little better
